

All three arms crush the base anchor; the heaviest install is the least robust among them (immediate metric)

Over-install inversion among arms: immediate robustness decreases with install intensity ($A3 < A1 < A2$).